

Athena Theatre

11840 Riverside Drive, Ste. 23
Valley Village, CA 91607

Newsletter

Athena Fundraiser

January 2005

How I Learned to Drive

by Paula Vogel

In Association with The Raven Playhouse

October 7, 8, 9, 15, 16, 2004

Athena Theatre is bringing you an amazing event! We are hosting an incredible evening of art and music to launch our 2005 Season. The plays will be announced at the fundraiser and season tickets will be available. Please stay tuned for details.

Athena Theatre is thrilled to do the honors of presenting How I Learned to Drive, winner of 1998 Pulitzer Prize for Drama. A play about a woman who looks back in forgiveness on a seven-year relationship with her uncle. Together they have traveled to the darkest, most intimate and unspoken of places. How I Learned To Drive is the story of a young woman whose coming-of-age in the 1960s and 70s is defined by driving lessons provided by her uncle, lessons which extend well-beyond learning the rules of the road. A beautifully crafted story unfolds her memories with breathtaking insight, wit and warmth.

Mission Statement

Véronique Ory and Elizabeth Welsh are the founding members of Athena Theatre.

Our purpose of Athena Theatre is to provide a supportive and creative environment for artists. We take risks, try new concepts, and carry out new approaches. Our goal is to have a theatre we are proud of and passionate about, representing the strength, intelligence, beauty and unique perspective of women in society. Please visit AthenaTheatre.com for more information.

Reservations: 818-754-1423 OR
On-line at www.AthenaTheatre.com

Athena Theatre

11840 Riverside Drive, #23
Valley Village, CA 91607

RSVP: 818-754-1423
Veronique@AthenaTheatre.com

We're on the web @

www.AthenaTheatre.com